1. Jesus made it clear that His baptism was more than just being submerged in water when He said, "You do not know what you ask. Are you able to . . . be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" (Matthew 20:22¹)
2. The baptism of Jesus had a past, present, and future tense. But they were all the same—death to self. (Matthew 3:16; 20:22¹)
3. Death to self, or giving up what we want for what God wants has never been popular, even for church goers. But this baptism, this repentance is the only way out of this world of sin. (Luke 3:7, 8⁴; see lessons 8 & 9)
4. It is not wrong to tell God what you want. But Jesus showed us that we must continually ask our heavenly Father to place His will in our hearts, giving us a want to, and a divine attitude of joy and peace no matter what He asks of us. (Luke 22:44⁸; Mark 14:36⁹; Luke 11:2)
5. Those who would follow Christ will be baptized with the same baptism with which Jesus was baptized. And He made it clear that this was to happen daily making it more of a state of being. (Luke 12:50²; Matthew 16:24; Luke 9:23³; 1 Corinthians 15:31⁶)
6. When we pray and die to self like Jesus did, miracles will happen to us, just like they did for Christ. We will not only have the companionship of angels, our hearts will be so transformed that others will take note, that we have been with Jesus. (Luke 22:43¹³; Hebrews 1:14; Matthew 26:50¹⁴; John 18:11¹⁵; Luke 23:34¹⁶; Acts 4:13)

Choices: Because God has promised to give me a new heart, and will help me die to self and live for Him, I would like to be baptized, just like Jesus was, and live now the same abundant obedient life that I will live in heaven some day soon. (Ezekiel 36:26; Mark 16:16; 2 Peter 1:3, 4) _____

1. Matthew 20:20-23 Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him. And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that _____ baptized with? They say unto him, We are able. And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that _____ baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

It is the love of _____ that destroys our peace. While self is all alive, we stand ready continually to guard it from mortification and insult; but when we are dead, and our life is hid with Christ in God, we shall not take neglects or slights to heart. We shall be deaf to reproach and blind to scorn and insult.
